Terms and Conditions

- Purpose. Motion Picture Licensing Corporation ("MPLC") grants licensee ("Licensee") a non-exclusive license ("License") to publicly perform copyrighted "Works" defined below, under the Terms and Conditions specified in this Umbrella License Agreement ("Agreement").
- Law. MPLC warrants and represents that it has secured the appropriate rights, under the federal Copyright Act, Title 17, U.S.C. §101 and §106, to grant this License.
- Term. "Term" shall mean the period beginning on the "Start Date" listed on the Umbrella License Application ("Application") and shall continue thereafter for the "License Option" period, unless canceled by either party giving sixty (60) days advance written notice before the end of said period or any subsequent period. If Licensee does not timely notify MPLC of intent to terminate, this Agreement will remain in effect for the License Option period, and Licensee will be responsible for the entire annual fee due to MPLC hereunder. No refunds or credits will be made by MPLC in the event of early termination by Licensee.
- Rights. The public performances authorized by this Agreement shall take place in the Facility(ies) identified in the Application or as Licensee otherwise notifies, and shall be via any means originally intended for personal use only including but not limited to DVD, streaming and download. The sole purpose of such performances is to entertain and/or educate authorized viewers and only employees that facilitate those performances. No specific titles, or any characters from such titles, or producers' names will be advertised or publicized to the general public, and no admission or other fee will be charged to the audience. The exhibitions cannot be used to endorse any goods or services. Works are defined as motion pictures and other audiovisual programs to which MPLC has received the rights to license under the parameters set forth herein.
- Fee. The agreed license fee for the first term of this Agreement is specified on the Application, which amount is payable to MPLC. Subsequent terms may include adjustments based on various factors, including, but not limited to adjustments which: (i) reflect any change from the previous year's Consumer Price Index (CPI), and/or (ii) reflect an increase in the number of facilities or other factors used to determine the license fee. On an annual basis, or upon request by MPLC, Licensee shall furnish MPLC with the information MPLC may require to determine the license fee for subsequent terms. Following such a request, if Licensee does not furnish the requested information within thirty (30) days prior to expiration, MPLC may independently determine the license fee for that term based on its reasonable estimation. The license fee for each subsequent term shall be due and payable no later than each anniversary date of the applicable term. Late payments for subsequent terms will be subject to a charge of one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the license fee per month.
- Restrictions. The specific titles which may be publicly performed by Licensee under this Agreement are Works produced and/or distributed by MPLC-affiliated rights holder companies only. MPLC represents that it or its rightsholders may not possess the appropriate rights to certain individual titles, or, due to the expiration of those rights during the term of this Agreement, MPLC may send Licensee at any time during the term of this Agreement binding notices that certain titles cannot be or may no longer be publicly performed under this Agreement. Such notices shall be binding and effective upon Licensee when received.
- Legally Obtained Works Only. Licensee may publicly perform only legally obtained Works covered by this Agreement. The responsibility for obtaining the Works is that of Licensee, and the costs of acquiring the Works are to be borne solely by Licensee and are separate and distinct from the agreed public performance license fee.
- No Other Rights. Licensee may not unlawfully duplicate, edit or otherwise modify the Works obtained for public performance purposes under this Agreement. Any and all rights not granted to Licensee in this Agreement are expressly reserved to MPLC and/or its rightsholders.
- Separate Fees. Any separate fees which may be due to music publishers, or collection societies for music publishers, for the right to publicly perform the music contained in any of the Works covered by this Agreement are solely Licensee's responsibility and are not the responsibility of MPLC. To the best of MPLC's knowledge, no such separate fees for motion pictures are presently in effect.
- Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by Licensee, without the prior written consent of MPLC, except that Licensee shall (a) assign this Agreement in connection with a merger, consolidation or sale of its assets and business, (b) provide MPLC with immediate notice of the assignment including contact information for the assignee, and (c) guarantee assignee's performance of all obligations of Licensee under this Agreement. This Agreement may be assigned by MPLC.
- Tax Liability. In the event that a determination is made by a taxing authority or court of any state in which Licensee conducts business that the activity licensed herein renders MPLC liable for the payment of a gross receipts, sales, business use or other tax which is based on the amount of MPLC's receipts from Licensee, then Licensee shall reimburse and indemnify MPLC within thirty (30) days of notification therefore for Licensee's pro rata share of any such tax derived from receipts received from Licensee.
- Notice. Any notice provided for herein shall be given in person; by first class air mail, postage prepaid; or by reputable overnight carrier; addressed to the party to be notified as listed on the Application. The date of personal service or mailing of any such notice shall constitute the date of service.
- Termination. MPLC reserves the right, exercisable upon thirty (30) days written notice, to terminate this Agreement on account of any breach by Licensee of its Terms and Conditions. In the event of such termination, there shall be no refund of the license fee. A waiver by MPLC or by Licensee of any specific breach by the other shall not constitute a waiver of any prior, continuing or subsequent breach of the same, or any other provision of this Agreement. If any part of this Agreement shall be determined unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
- Legal Fees. In the event MPLC engages a lawyer to enforce its rights under this Agreement by virtue of the breach on the part of Licensee, of any term of this Agreement, Licensee agrees to pay the reasonable costs and lawyer fees incurred by MPLC.
- Late Fees. In the event that MPLC incurs any costs or fees in connection with the collection of any amounts past due to MPLC hereunder, then Licensee shall be responsible for paying such amounts to MPLC upon demand, with interest at the rate of nine percent (9%) per annum calculated from date of demand.
- Guarantees. Licensee guarantees that the information provided by Licensee is true, correct and complete in all respects. This Agreement has been duly authorized and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation upon Licensee and is enforceable by its Terms and Conditions which may be updated by MPLC. In the event that any signature is delivered by facsimile or e-mail delivery of a ".pdf" format data file, such signature shall create a valid and binding obligation with the same force and effect as if an original signature.
- Warranty. To the extent that, prior to the commencement date of this Agreement, Licensee may have infringed upon rights held by MPLC, MPLC hereby agrees that it will not seek legal recourse or assert any claim for any and all such possible infringements which would have been licensed under this Agreement. MPLC makes this warranty only with respect to rights held by it, and is not empowered or authorized to make any such representation or warranty with respect to rights held by others.
- Jurisdiction. The Application and these Terms and Conditions contain the full and complete agreement between MPLC and Licensee and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the United States and the State of California and the parties submit to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the U.S. Courts as regards to any claim or matter arising in relation to this Agreement.

Why Do We Need a License?

Today, audiences can access motion pictures and other audiovisual programs at the touch of a screen and in a variety of formats, such as DVDs, downloads, and streaming services. Regardless of the delivery method, these programs are intended for personal, private use only and require a license when shown in public.

The US Copyright Act, Title 17 of the United States Code, was adopted in 1976 to coincide with new technology. Prior to the advent of videocassettes, motion pictures and other audiovisual programs were not readily available for purchase or rental.

Noncompliance with the Copyright Act is considered copyright infringement and carries significant penalties. Fines for noncompliance start at $750 for each inadvertent infringement and go as high as $150,000 for each egregious violation.

Through a longstanding partnership with MPLC, members of the National Association of RV Parks & Campgrounds (ARVC) can save over 20% on the cost of an annual Umbrella License for unlimited indoor or outdoor exhibitions.

The Simple Solution

MPLC was founded in 1986 to make motion picture public performance easy to understand, accessible, and affordable. The result is the Umbrella License, MPLC's proprietary public performance blanket license, a comprehensive copyright compliance solution.

Benefits

- Public performance rights from over 1,000 motion picture studios and producers.
- Unlimited showings are allowed without any reporting requirements.
- One license fee based on intended use.

Global Reach

- More than 500,000 locations licensed in over 35 countries.
- The largest corporations and smallest nonprofit organizations benefit from the Umbrella License.

Guidelines

- Exhibitions must be free of charge.
- Motion picture titles, characters, and studio names cannot be advertised to the general public.

Compliance

- Complete and submit the Umbrella License application.
- A Certificate of License will be issued upon receipt of a completed application.
- Begin showing motion pictures and other audiovisual programs immediately.

Questions & Answers

Q We show movies and TV shows that we have purchased or rented on DVD or through an online streaming service subscription. Do we still need a license to view or show it in public?

A Yes. The location requires a license regardless of who owns the content. While you may have rented, borrowed, or purchased an audiovisual program, you are only granted the right to view it for personal, private use, not to perform it in public.

Q We don't charge admission. Do we still need a license?

A Yes. A license is required regardless of whether an admission fee is charged. In fact, the Umbrella License only covers situations where admission is not charged.

Q We have cable or satellite TV. Do we still need a license?

A It depends. Basic cable channels do not require a license. However, a license is required for any non-advertiser supported, premium, pay-per-view, or on demand channels and programs.

Q Does the Umbrella License allow us to show movies outside?

A Yes. The Umbrella License allows for unlimited indoor or outdoor exhibitions at your campground or RV park.

Q Can we open up our movie events to the general public?

A No. Campground exhibitions are intended as an amenity of your park accessible by campground guests only. Events cannot be open to or promoted to the general public.

Q Staff does not plan or schedule movies, but guests may watch their own DVDs using the DVD player in our clubhouse. Do we still need a license?

A Yes. The facility owner can be held vicariously liable or considered a contributory infringer.
