As a visitor to our beautiful and scenic area, the members of ORCA welcome you and pledge the quality of service, friendliness and hospitality that are the hallmarks of membership in our State Association and our valued affiliation with ARVC, the National Association of RV Parks and Campgrounds. Independent and corporate RV Park owners and operators throughout Oregon and across this great nation are joined together in a common goal to ensure the safety, comfort and best possible experience to the RV traveling public by these important affiliations. Wherever your travels take you, we urge you to look for and support RV accommodations that proudly display their State and National Association affiliations! Rest assured that your stay in these facilities will be of the highest quality and personal enjoyment!

ORCA is a fairly new but fast growing organization that works on many fronts to provide its member parks and affiliates with shared information and support for improving services, government contact for improved safety and comfort of our guests as well as buying power for the ever important goals of keeping costs down while pushing services to our customers to the highest possible standards. The synergy created by bringing together the experience and integrity of Park and Campground owners and operators into organized regional, statewide and national gatherings and constantly improving communication for the betterment of our industry results in the best possible service for our guests and customers.

Parks and Campgrounds in Oregon that are not already members of this vibrant organization are urged to consider membership. Visit us at: www.camporca.com
