Dogwood Acres Campground wins Volunteer of the Year Award

Dogwood Acres Campground in Newville, PA wins Volunteer of the Year Award under Group category from the United Way of the Capital Region in Harrisburg, PA.

Harrisburg, PA - 14 April 2010 – Dogwood Acres Campground was the winner out of eight nominees in the Group Category for the Volunteer of the Year Award, given by the United Way of the Capital Region, on April 14, 2010 at Beth El Temple in Harrisburg.

Valerie Pritchett of WHTM abc27 News was emcee of the event and read the nomination submitted by Amy Leonard of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Pennsylvania. “It is an honor to nominate Dogwood Acres Campground for the Group Volunteer of the Year Award because year after year, this dedicated and deserving group of individuals pours their entire hearts and souls into helping 1,000 families that they do not know and most of which they will never meet. And, they don’t just go above and beyond for Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central PA, they also do so for their entire community through the support of other local organizations and individuals in need.”

From 2002-2009 Dogwood Acres Campground with its seasonal and weekend campers, and volunteers have raised over $47,000.00 for the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central PA, so that they can help families stay for free at the Ronald McDonald House while their children are in the Penn State Hershey Medical Center. Dogwood Acres Campground raised over $5,000.00 for other local charities as well.

You can read the nomination in its entirety from Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central PA on Dogwood Campground’s web site, www.dogwoodcamping.com.

Charlie and Lucille Strub owner of Dogwood Acres Campground in Newville since 2001, hold many charity events during their camping season. Seasonal and weekend campers along with volunteers help run the events.
